estate firm, William E. Fornoff, a former Baltimore county official, Jerome B. Wolff, president of J.E. Greiner Environmental Systems, and J. Walter Jones, a Maryland banker-developer. (AP Wirephoto)

Justice Department Refuses To Comment On Reports Of Alleged 'Kickbacks'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tightening the lid on its investigation, the Justice Department has refused to comment on a report that Spiro T. Agnew received $50,000 from private contractors after he became vice president.

The report was carried today by the Knight newspaper chain, which quoted sources as saying federal prosecutors have been told that contractors paid Agnew $1,000 a week over a period of years, and the $50,000 sum after he was elected vice president.

In a story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper chain quoted the source as saying some of the contributions may have been put to Agnew's personal use.

The Justice Department has acknowledged only that Agnew is the subject of a criminal investigation, a fact disclosed Monday night by the vice president himself. He proclaimed his innocence and said he would not comment further.

No charges have been filed against the vice president, and the case, being investigated by U.S. Atty. George Beall of Baltimore, has not been referred to a grand jury.

The investigation involves allegations of bribery, extortion and tax evasion growing out of kickbacks allegedly paid by building contractors and engineers to Maryland and Baltimore County political figures.

Republican fund-raising efforts also are involved, but Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson has decided against referring the case to Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox.

However, Samuel Dash, chief counsel to the Senate Watergate committee, says the panel may investigate the case if fund-raising for last year's presidential election is involved. The committee is empowered to investigate any wrongdoing in connection with the election.

The Los Angeles Times today quoted a source close to the investigation as saying action on a proposed indictment of Agnew is expected "within weeks—not days or months, but weeks."

The vice president will be invited to testify before the grand jury, although the jury could indict without hearing his testimony, the source told the Times.

The Times said that two of Agnew's close Maryland political allies, Lester Matz, a wealthy Baltimore engineer, and Jerome B. Wolff, have negotiated for immunity in exchange for their testimony.

The investigation was started last January, and originally was aimed at political corruption in Baltimore County, where Agnew got his political start.

As a result of the probe, Walter E. Fornoff, the Baltimore County administrative officer since 1957, pleaded guilty two months ago to a minor tax charge and was granted immunity from further prosecution.

He admitted in court that he funneled cash payments from contractors to an unidentified county official beginning in 1967. Agnew had been elected Baltimore County executive in 1967. (See back page, sec. 1, col. 1)

Gung-Ho Prosecutor Feels Resentful

WASHINGTON (AP) — Angrily, his voice at times squeaking, Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry E. Petersen poured out his resentment at losing control of the Watergate case to a special prosecutor.

"Damn it, I think it is a reflection on me and the Department of Justice," said Petersen, who rose from messenger to major-domo in 26 years in the department.

Following Petersen's testimony, the Senate Watergate committee recessed Tuesday to an indefinite date after the congressional summer recess ends on Sept. 5. The committee has heard 35 witnesses since it began its televised hearings May 17, but still has not quite finished the first — the Watergate — phase of its three-pronged investigation of presidential campaign practices.

Meanwhile, the committee's chief counsel, Samuel Dash, said the panel was about ready to file its lawsuit asking a federal judge to order President Nixon to supply the committee with tapes and documents relating to Watergate. He said the suit will be filed by Thursday.

Nixon Tuesday, through his attorneys, told a U.S. District Court judge that the courts have no authority to force him to turn over the material in a similar suit, filed by special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox.

After Petersen erupted in anger over losing the investigation to Cox, he apologized to the committee.

"Excuse my emotions but I have been there too long and this has been a terrible year," he said.

Petersen took charge of the investigation hours after five men were arrested inside Democratic headquarters at the Watergate complex June 17, 1972.

As head of the criminal division, he supervised the three young prosecutors who gained convictions of the five burglars and two former White House aides — G. Gordon Liddy and E. Howard Hunt Jr.

Then, when new breaks in the case implicated higher-ups last April, Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst was forced out of the case, and later out of office, because some of the accusations were leveled against his friends.

Petersen began reporting directly to the President.

But within weeks the new at-

Justice Brennan Has His Son On State's Payroll

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Supreme Court Justice Thomas E. Brennan has had his son on the court's payroll as a research assistant for the past 11 months, according to the Detroit Free Press.

In its Wednesday edition, the paper said the judge's 21-year-old son, Thomas E. Brennan Jr., a student at Michigan State University, is receiving an annual salary of $8,100 for the job.

The younger Brennan is working as a law clerk, a job which normally carries a salary of as much as $14,000.

Brennan could not be reached immediately for comment on the charges.

The judge acknowledged recently that he had employed his wife, son and daughter at a private, nonprofit law school he founded in Lansing last year. He denied charges that there is a conflict of interest in his serving on the court and as president of the school.

Brennan's salary as Supreme court justice is $42,000. He also draws a $10,000 expense account from the law school to spend as he sees fit.

He earlier admitted that his wife had been placed on the payroll of the private Cooley law school at $8,400 a year. However, Brennan said his wife left the full-time payroll last month to work part-time at $5 an hour to supervise the school's next fund-raising dinner.

It could not be determined immediately if the son on the Supreme court payroll is the same one working for Cooley law school. Brennan acknowledged he had hired his daughter and son at $2.50 an hour for part-time summer work at the school.

ABA To Vote On Watergate Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Bar Association is expected to vote today on a compromise Watergate resolution calling for "prompt and vigorous" investigation of the ethical conduct of lawyers involved in the scandal.

Also scheduled are votes on proposals that would put the 170,000-member lawyers' organization on record as favoring legalization of the private use of marijuana and private, "non-commercial" sexual conduct between consenting adults.

Forgives Reporter Guru Gets Pie In Face

DETROIT (AP) — True to his peaceful philosophy which has gained him a worldwide following, teen-aged self-styled prophet Pralip Singh Rawat calmly accepted a pie in the face from a young American radical Tuesday.

A 22-year-old reporter for a local underground paper, approached the 15-year-old guru, apparently to present him with a bouquet at a Detroit Common Council testimonial meeting.

Instead, he dropped the flowers, took quick aim and before a stunned audience, delivered a decidedly irreverent greeting to the "love child."

"I've always wanted to throw a pie in God's face," said Pat Halley, who described himself as a libertarian-socialist. "If this guy is God, take me to the Devil." Halley called the guru, who also is known as Maharaj Ji, "a slick businessman on an ego-trip." As the guru was hustled away by his bodyguards, Halley escaped despite attempts to stop him. Rawat is reported to have urged that Halley not be apprehended.

Councilwoman Erma Henderson, who sponsored the testimonial resolution, apologized as she presented the award saluting Rawat for his "continuous efforts in advocating peace, love and unity."

In a short acceptance speech, Rawat urged his followers not to hate his assailant. He said that "hate is the opposite of love as night is the opposite of day" and that their task was to walk with love in the light of day.

Rawat, who calls himself Balyogeshwar (Child God), claims to be the "perfect master" of his time as were Jesus, Buddha and Mohammed before him. He reportedly has amassed a large fortune from his following, believed to be in the millions worldwide.

The money is said to be used to establish missions and enable the "master" to travel and attempt to spread his message.

After his departure, the guru's followers milled about with dreamy looks and hugged each other. One girl sat alone and cried quietly.

Said one, "Did you see how he returned without a trace of wetness on his clothes, so serene, so humble. He's beautiful."

BH Millage Goes Down Again By 2 To 1

A 3-mill operating tax hike in the Benton Harbor school district was beaten by a near 2 to 1 margin Tuesday.

The defeat by 1,713 to 923 in the unofficial count was the second in two months. The millage lost by an 8 to 5 margin at the regular school election when voter turnout was larger.

Supt. Raymond Strebeth said it appeared the last chance for a millage vote this year because the 1973 tax levy is scheduled to be certified at the board of education meeting next Monday. This would mean an operating tax levy the same as last year — 29.7240 mills.

The 3 mills would have raised about $530,000 which is already in the district's proposed budget for 1973-74. Last year, some $600,000 was trimmed from the budget and 35 teaching posts abolished after a millage defeat.

About 1 out of 9 of the district's voters went to the polls. The millage carried in only three of 27 precincts, and there were tie counts in two precincts. Sodus where a transfer case is pending

BH City Election Results

Winners in Tuesday's Benton Harbor primary election Tuesday were Hershel McKenzie, Edward Merrill, Carl Brown and F. Joseph Flaugh. The cable television franchise proposal was defeated. See complete results on page 13.

rejected it 118 to 28.

Strebeth declared in wake of the defeat:

"Obviously, we are very disappointed with the results of the voting, however, it is equally apparent that we must now move ahead to develop a balanced budget within the framework of the money available. It has always been the practice of the board and administrators of this district to operate on a balanced budget and avoid spending beyond the resources available."

He said the administration will prepare information for the board which will establish the priorities for spending. "I'm certain whatever finally comes out as our budget for the district will reflect the best use of the money available. We must all realize however, the kinds of programs and service offered will not be of the scope and quality the board would like to provide."

TRANSFORMATION: The Hennes Co. has transformed former bindery of the A. B. Morse printing plant into Twin City area's newest retail showplace. Cedar shake canopies frame display windows. Store is located at 800 Ship street, St. Joseph. Entrance to parking lot is from Court street Grand opening will be observed Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week. Store hours are 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday and Thursday; 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Grand Opening This Weekend In St. Joe Hennes Co. Has New, Bigger Store

The Hennes Co., 80 years in the Twin Cities in the same family, will celebrate the grand opening of its new store, 800 Ship street, St. Joseph, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The ribbon cutting ceremony at 10:30 a. m. Thursday is 11 years to the day of the ribbon cutting ceremony for the grand opening of the previous store at 136 Pipestone street in Benton Harbor.

The Hennes Co., oldest twin city clothing company in the same family, opened its latest store in what was the former A. B. Morse printing company bindery, earlier this summer. The transformation of the former bindery into one of the 'Twin Cities' smartest shops is amazing.

Preparations leading up to the grand opening have been completed, President Richard Hennes said.

Hennes said the present store has nearly 7,000 square feet of display area, more than twice the area of the previous store. About two-thirds of the store is devoted to men's clothing.

Included in the new layout are offices, fitting rooms, a tailor shop and storage room.

The new store has its own 50-car parking lot.

Among the features of the open house is a plan for the Hennes company to donate $1 to a select list of charities or community service organizations. Residents will indicate by registering to which organizations the funds should go.

Hennes said: "We believe that our friends have made this grand opening possible. It's our fourth in 80 years. To show our appreciation we'll donate $1 to a community service or charity. You sign up—we give the dollar." Only restrictions, Hennes said, is that one donation per household and requests must be made by adults. No purchase is necessary.

There will be fashion shows during the three days of the open house and prizes awarded to persons registering.

The design of the new store was by George Coban Associates of Ferndale, designer of Detroit's civic center and the Kalamazoo mall. The same firm designed the former Hennes store in Benton Harbor.

Mayer Hennes founded the first Hennes store in Benton Harbor about 1893. Shortly after World War I, sons Oscar and Lewis, opened a store at the corner of Territorial road and Fifth street. In 1925 Hennes clothiers moved to 136 Pipestone street where the store was located for 37 years. Remodeling projects were completed in 1936 and 1950. At the Pipestone location the store was under the sole management of Oscar Hennes. His brother, E. Lewis Hennes, left the business in 1925.

Eleven years ago the Hennes store moved across Pipestone from 135 to 136 and considerably larger quarters.

The hours of the open house in the new store are the same as the store's regular weekend hours: Thursday—9:30 a. m. to 9 p. m.; Friday and Saturday—9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW: Richard Hennes, president of Hennes Co., sits at roll top desk that was owned by his father, the late Oscar Hennes. Something more recent is broken ankle for Richard, sustained when he fell while playing golf. Wife, Laya, is company vice president.

MEN DOMINATE BUT WOMEN STAR: Two-thirds of the nearly 7,000 square feet of display area at new Hennes Co. store is devoted to men's clothing items. But in upper third of the sparkling new store is the women's section.

Williams, Kathryn Meyers, George Schuur (with beard), John Shire, Brad Harris, John Adam, Roger Swisher (furnishings buyer) and Keith Zitta. Absent were Robert Shire (men's clothing buyer) and Chris Bielefeld (office manager).

ONE BIG STEP FOR BJ: Braxton J. Kieft, 20-month-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kieft of Wildwood Estates, Bridgman, jumps into the family's swimming pool without fear or hesitation.

Future Olympian?

He's 20 Months Old, Swims Like A Fish!

BY DICK DERRICK
SJ City Editor

Twenty-month-old, 33-inch tall Braxton J. Kieft just fits in the family's new 20 by 40-foot swimming pool.

Right now he can swim the width of the pool underwater with the confidence of a fish. At the rate he is going it won't be long before the entire pool will be his playpen.

Braxton (his nickname is "B. J.") is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kieft, Wildwood Estates, Bridgman, and a graduate of the YWCA water sprites program.

Babies can instinctively swim and with proper introduction to the water learn to swim rather than fear it.

BJ, however, has taken to the Kieft's new pool almost instinctively. He jumps into water five feet deep, holds his breath and paddles toward the ladder—or a parent whichever is handiest.

Actually BJ has more confidence in his swimming ability than his mother. She took him to the YWCA pool in St. Joseph for his first lessons. She watches her son carefully to see that he doesn't extend himself. She will, however, test him too.

When the tot jumps into the water he heads for his mother or dad. Mrs. Kieft will step back to make the swim a little longer.

BJ's swimming lessons have actually just begun. He must learn how to breathe in the water. Right now he holds his breath and swims underwater.

Teaching BJ how to breathe while swimming is a process of teaching by example and practice.

Dr. Kieft can feel the development of his son's chest and lungs. The youngster is strong and two and three dips a day in the pool is building up his wind and strength.

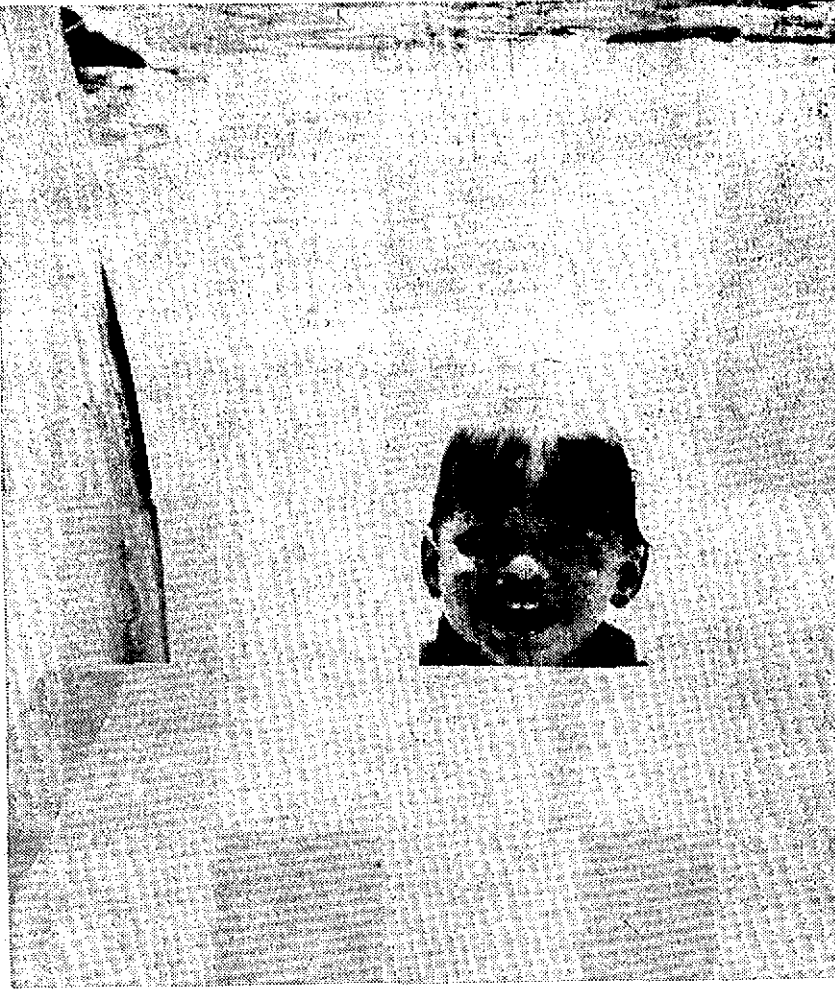

The Kiefts have a six-week old son, Chadwick, who faces an early introduction to the swimming pool.

Dr. Kieft came to Bridgman in 1970 to open his dental practice. He has since been elected to the Bridgman board of education and serves as the secretary. Mrs. Kieft is a former teacher.
